

The Book of Glory: *The Passion, Death and Resurrection
of Jesus
according to John*

with Jan Fletcher

As is true of the Fourth Gospel in general, John's account of the death and resurrection of Jesus is unique in many ways. The washing of the disciples' feet, the teaching about the Spirit Paraclete, the dramatic trial before Pilate, the encounter between the Risen Christ with Mary Magdalene on Easter morning and with 'doubting' Thomas a week later—these are only a few of the events that are unique to John.

The Book of Glory (John 13 – 21) begins with Jesus washing the feet of his disciples and ends with the Risen Christ preparing breakfast for them. Who is this Jesus who is both lord and servant? What kind of glory is his? What kind of discipleship is he calling us to?
